NUMBER 4.

Whitaker Writes Att'y. Gen. Knox

Simultaneous Increase in Price of Gasoline Prompts Inquiry as to How People are Protected against Combinations to Control Price—Attorney General Frankly States that Legislature of 1926 and the Courts have Practically Cut the Heart Out of State Anti-Trust Laws, but States the Matter is Being Looked Into.

Mr. W. W. Whitaker has handed the Sentinel the following correspondence between Attorney General Rush Knox and himself.

Mr. Whitaker asks some questions of the Attorney General that are matters of more than ordinary importance to the whole state.

The Attorney General is not able to offer much hope for the thousands who are being feasted upon by combinations to bolster prices. This paper, as is well known by those who have kept tabs on its utterances, has repeatedly stated that the administration of that splendid citizen and great educator, the lamented Whitfield—but a man wholly unfitted to deal with political issues and those who swarm around the State Capital for spoils—went so far under the spur of time servers and those who see a dollar above every thing else, to "invite capital into the state" that it practically left Mississippi without any remedy against those who hamstring the many for the benefit of the few.

Mr. Whitaker's letter is dated Holcomb, R. F. D., June 4:

"I am one of those who has tried in some small way to look into at least some of the matters of public concern, and to ascertain, if possible, certain whys and wherefores. My parents gave me fairly good educational advantages—they gave me far more than I used as I should have done.

"I am a farmer. I am also a member of the board of supervisors of this county, and as such I feel it my duty to try to keep abreast of at least some of the leading problems that confront the welfare of the public. I am therefore prompted to write you because of the high position which you occupy and because, as I understand, it is made the duty of the attorney general to proceed against combinations and trusts formed to boost prices and in restraint of trade.

"I am thinking at this moment about some of the gigantic combines that are being formed throughout the land. Mississippi has not a clear or clean garment in this regard. A few years ago those in high places in the Nation and in Mississippi went after the malefactors of wealth with a club, but it seems now that the idea is to walk easy.

"Within the past ten days, the state of Mississippi has been told by the gasoline interests that the people must pay one cent more for gasoline. It seems that all the gasoline interests thought of one and the same thing at the same time. Remarkable that this should have occurred unless there is an understanding, a definite and distinct combination in restraint of trade, or a purpose to mulct the public. I am told that this increase is not chargeable to the local dealers but that the big ones handed the increase down to them. And yet we must just sit still and not open our mouths lest we hurt business.

"If what I see in some of the newspapers is correct and if my limited knowledge of what the fire insurance companies are doing, those who operate in Mississippi are in a combine. Not only do the fire insurance companies all write at the same price, but they undertake to punish an agent who uses any discretion, or who fails to follow 'fixed' rates.

"I am wondering if all the anti-trust laws of Mississippi have been repealed; or if they have been so operated on by the courts that they are practically a nullity?"

"Permit me to say that if there is a law under which your department can proceed against these combinations, in my judgment, you could not render a better service than to institute proceedings in the name of the state. If there is no law to protect the general public against such things as I have mentioned, then are we in a bad way indeed. May I ask you for an early reply to my letter.

"Yours very truly,
"W. W. WHITAKER"
Attorney General Knox's reply.

"Mr. W. W. Whitaker,
"Member, Board of Supervisors,
"Holcomb, Mississippi.
"Dear Sir:

"I am in receipt of your favor of June 4th with reference to the anti-trust law, etc. in which you suggest that in your opinion it would be well to bring some anti-trust suits just at this time and especially against the big gas interests.

courts that they are practically a nullity?"

"Our legislature at the 1926 session did not exactly repeal the anti-trust statutes but so 'operated' on them, as you suggest, that they are almost a nullity now, and then our courts have had something to say about these statutes since the wave started over Mississippi a few years ago, as such suits were running capital out of the state.

"Before an anti-trust suit can be sustained now the Attorney General would have to prove to the satisfaction of the court: (1) the existence of a trust or combine, (2) and even though it did exist, no judgment could be entered against a trust or combine in favor of the state unless the state should go further and prove that the existence of the same and the conduct of the combination was inimical to the public welfare generally, of the state.

"Not long since a party came to my office, who was either an independent gasoline dealer or interested in certain gasoline dealers, and wanted me to bring suit because the price was so low that they were losing money and were about to be forced out of business. I was satisfied that there was a general agreement then to reduce the price below actual cost, in such cases, but it was doubtful as to whether or not it was inimical to the public welfare inasmuch as the public was getting gasoline at a very low price. There is no doubt in my mind now but that there was a general agreement to put the price from 23 to 24 cents in the state. But, under the anti-trust statute they are allowed to vary the price in different localities, owing to the cost and overhead expenses, and at the same time, they are permitted to make a reasonable profit. I do not know just what profit they are making and whether or not it is excessive at this time. I am investigating this feature of it now and may be able to do something in the near future in this regard.

"But, the trouble with the situation is, as I indicated above, even though I could prove there was a combination, or trust, formed and organized, I could not recover unless I could prove that it was inimical to the welfare of the public generally, unless I could show that the price was fixed in order to stifle competition. At any rate, I appreciate your letter. Your sentiments are somewhat in accord with mine. I have been going after the 'big fellows' since I have been in office; made the railroad companies pay back taxes, and other public service corporations, but now it is being said that I used the 'big stick' on them in order to make them pay up and that the state ought to be compelled to refund to the poor, helpless and defenseless railroad companies such as the Illinois Central and other big lines, the excess taxes I have collected out of them for the state treasury in 1926, which saved a deficit in the treasury and an increase in taxes on the people of the state generally, and saved an extra session of the legislature, and thereby a raise in the ad valorem levy from six to eight, or ten mills. This is the kind of business and politics we have these days, and a fellow doesn't know just where to start, or where to get on or off. Usually he will be damned if he does and be damned if he 'don't'.

"At any rate, I appreciate your letter. If you are in Jackson at any time, I will be glad to meet you and talk the situation over with you.

"Yours very truly,
(Signed) "RUSH H. KNOX,
"Attorney General"

REACHES 27TH BIRTHDAY

On page six of this week's Sentinel appears an announcement of the birthday celebration of a concern that has made for itself a most enviable reputation during its more than a quarter of a century of service to the people of this section of the state—Fountain's of Greenwood.

Fountain's makes statements in telling of its forthcoming celebration event that should be read with interest by everyone interested in good news and it tells how it is going to show its appreciation to the people who have helped to build this store into the great merchandising institution it is today.

Turn to page six, see what this store has to tell you about its birthday party.

CROWDER CARRIED TO INSANE HOSPITAL

Sheriff Fred Nason left on train No. 3, Wednesday, with W. H. Crowder, whom he carried to the Insane Hospital at Jackson for mental treatment.

A jury was empaneled Tuesday to consider Mr. Crowder's condition and it is stated that the verdict of that body was that he should have mental treatment, hence his being sent to Jackson. Mr. Crowder has been in confinement since the next day after the shooting of Lloyd Loft which was noted in these columns at the time. The sympathy of the community is with the family and Mr. Crowder, too, in this unfortunate situation.

Mr. Crowder is serving as tax assessor of Grenada county, a place to which he was elected at the last general state election. He is innately a gentleman, and it is his nature to be thoughtful and accommodating at all times.

His daughter, Miss Mary, has been named as deputy and, with the assistance of Mr. David A. Williams, is now going over Mr. Crowder's books in order to complete the records and have the books ready for the inspection of the board of supervisors as required by law at the July meeting.

It might be stated that had the verdict of the jury of inquiry declared Mr. Crowder to be of unsound mind, that that verdict would have served to vacate the office of tax assessor at once. As the situation is, the hope is indulged that he may respond to treatment and ere many months have rolled by, will be allowed to return home and resume his normal duties.

THE LEADER ANNOUNCES SEMI-ANNUAL CLEARANCE

The Leader, one of Grenada's finest stores, is announcing in this issue of The Sentinel its semi-annual clearance sale. "A sale without ifs and buts." In the page advertisement this concern takes to tell its friends and customers of this big semi-annual event, are quoted prices that cannot fail to appeal to the person who is anxious to secure fine merchandise at a saving in price.

In the sale, is included everything in the store. And by everything in the store is meant everything regularly carried by The Leader—no extra merchandise has been bought just for sale purposes but sale prices are placed on goods in stock now.

The Sentinel suggests that every man and woman read and study this advertisement which contains much of interest.

FILLS LONG-FELT NEED

A step recently taken by the Crown Service Station, announced in The Sentinel this week, fills a need long felt by the motoring public, especially in Grenada and the surrounding territory. This enterprising concern states that it is now giving "24 hours ceaseless service" and that it will give the same kind of service on gas, oil, tires, washing, greasing and road service, that it has always given during daylight hours.

One now need not worry, if he is planning an early morning trip or some journey during the night, about having his tank filled with gas and other necessary little things for he knows now he can drive by the Crown Service Station and have these matters attended to in just a few minutes' time.

The Crown Service Station tells you something about it in this paper. Read it.

UNION SERVICES AT METHODIST CHURCH SUNDAY NIGHT

The Sentinel gladly states to its readers that the union services in which the First Baptist church, the Episcopal church, the Presbyterian and the Methodist congregations have joined forces for the summer months, will be held Sunday night at the Methodist church. The initial sermon will be delivered by Dr. W. E. Farr of the First Baptist church. Mr. Farr as well as the other pastors is joining wholeheartedly in the services. It speaks well for the fine Christian fellowship of Grenada and for the cause of religion that the different churches plan these union services through the heated summer months.

DESIRES TO MEET CRIPPLES AND BLIND

Mrs. Mary S. Baker of the Rehabilitation Department and Mrs. D. W. McBryde of the Commission for the Blind Jackson, Mississippi, will be in Grenada Tuesday morning, June 18th, at the office of the County Superintendent of Education from 8:30 o'clock until 11:00 o'clock and would like to meet all persons who are crippled or blind or have seriously defective sight.

ROTARY HAS GUESTS

Club Votes Tuesday to Invite District At-Large.

The Rotary Club had nine visitors at its luncheon Tuesday noon. They were Rev. J. A. Smith, James C. Watson, Louisville, Rotarian Meek Gillespie, Charleston, W. C. Landall, Memphis, F. M. Wellborn and S. F. Whitaker, of Greenwood, R. S. Anderson, of Kosciusko, Mr. Lauderdale, of Pine Bluff, and David Young Dubard and Eugene Countiss, of Grenada.

Mr. Watson, whose marriage to Miss Nannie Lou Hamilton was solemnized Wednesday night, was asked to make a short talk. He made a few remarks but declined to make any comments on his forthcoming matrimonial venture.

The club voted unanimously to invite the new district governor, Chauncey Smith, of Clarksdale, to hold the district assembly in Grenada on Wednesday and Thursday, June 26th and 27th. The probabilities are that the assembly, which is a conference of incoming executives, will be held here on those dates.

It was announced that B. J. Anderson, delegate to the recent international convention at Dallas, would make a report of the convention at the next meeting and that Dr. R. A. Clanton would make a vocational talk at that time.

The first instance of lumbering being done in the Hudson River valley was when Henry Hudson sent his ship's carpenter ashore to make his vessel a new foremast fashioned from one of the trees of the forest.

REVIVAL AT METHODIST CHURCH CLOSED SUNDAY

The revival at the Methodist church conducted by Rev. J. A. Smith, assisted by his accomplished wife as singer, came to a close last Sunday. Mrs. Smith led the singing. Dr. Smith and wife were compelled to leave Friday night in order to meet some engagements with his church at Hattiesburg. The remainder of the meeting was in charge of the pastor, Rev. J. H. Holder.

Dr. Smith made a fine impression on the community. Those who had the opportunity to be thrown with him personally the most, appreciated him the most. He is a scholarly man and his pulpit deliveries show great thought and serious concern. There were a number of additions to the church, and it may be truthfully stated that no true gospel message was ever delivered in vain and that the fruits of the meeting will bear fruit in the lives of many.

BUREAUS AT WASHINGTON

Bureau upon top of bureau, bureau on top of bureau, until they pile up towering into the sky, each one emitting rules and rules and rules like the volcano belches forth its smoke until the average citizen is lost in the meshes of the multitudinous laws, rules and regulations more than he ever dreamed he could be; and yet he who does not vote to transfer still greater power into the hands of the executive and he who fails to bend his knee in subservient pliancy before the divine edict is classed, forsooth, as an opponent of apportionment on a fair and just and equitable basis.—Senator Black, Democrat, Alabama.

DO NOT MORTGAGE ALL YOUR ENERGIES

Following up what appeared in these columns last week, relative to the proposed bond issue of $65,000, we want the voters of district one to do some calculating, some really serious thinking, if you please.

It is our purpose to give our readers the facts, the true situation. We have no more interest in the matter than any other citizen. We are just as much interested in building permanent roads as any other citizen. We realize that they are needed, and that badly. They are arteries of business; they contribute to social life; they are factors in pleasure and promote school attendance. If the bonds are voted and the road is built, we dare say that we will use it more than the average citizen of Grenada. The road leads into our "old country" and towards a section where we have relatives in "old Carroll County". But we think we can read the signs of the times well enough to know when to stop even a good thing.

We cannot get something for nothing. When bonds are issued, they have to be paid just as surely as two and two make four. Besides the bonds comes that ever present and annually annoying interest charge.

The report of the state auditor, referred to in reference to this matter last week, showed that for the two years covered by the report, the taxpayers of the county paid out in interest, $85,737.50, or approximately $46. apiece for every registered voter in the county. That's going some.

The following shows the assessments by beats for the year 1928, and also the county assessment of the city of Grenada.

| Beat | Real | Personal | Public Utilities | Total |
|-------|-----------|-----------|------------------|-----------|
| 1 | 1,968,375 | 1,102,999 | 1,024,821 | 4,096,195 |
| 2 | 303,191 | 68,870 | | 372,061 |
| 3 | 269,370 | 70,785 | 207,953 | 548,108 |
| 4 | 225,900 | 52,945 | 477,736 | 756,581 |
| 5 | 421,415 | 119,510 | 96,494 | 637,419 |
| TOTAL | 3,188,251 | 1,415,109 | 1,807,004 | 6,410,364 |
| City | 1,343,265 | 838,794 | 306,787 | 2,488,846 |

By a simple calculation the following will be seen: (1) that of the total property value of beat 1, more than 60 per cent of it is in the town of Grenada; (2) that of the total value of the property of the whole county, 62 9-10 per cent is in beat 1; (3) that of the total value of the property of beats 1, 2, 3 and 4 (beats jointly and severally bound for $300,000 in bonds) 79 per cent is in beat 1. Thus it is readily seen that the citizens of beat one are paying and must pay the larger part, far more than half, of the bonds now outstanding.

On the basis just above named, beat one will pay of the general county bonds now outstanding, $116,365.

As already shown, of the total property value of beats 1, 2, 3 and 4, district one furnishes 79 per cent, hence of the $234,000 bonds outstanding by these four beats, beat one must pay $184,860.

Beat one has of its own issue, $236,000 bonds outstanding. If we add what this beat is to pay on basis of present values, beat one will have to pay on bonds issued with beats 2, 3 and 4, $184,860 and of the general county bonds outstanding, $116,365. In brief, the property owners in district one are now obligated to pay, and must pay, $537,225 on bonds now outstanding. Then bear in mind that more than 60 per cent of the same beat one property owners are obligated to pay $339,000 in bonds now outstanding in the city of Grenada, making a grand total of $876,225 for the citizens of beat one as a whole.

Is this not enough? We fully appreciate that the idea which is regnant in the minds of too many today is to buy today and trust to luck tomorrow. The whole country is skating on thin ice, financially.

But why do a foolish thing just because someone else, or others, are doing it? Why not some of the rules and the common sense that enabled our fathers to turn over this country to us in all its beauty and hopefulness? We ask, why?

Superintendent Writes of 5 Mill Levy

His Idea is that Taxes of all Separate School Districts of the County Will Not Be Increased by Voting the Five Mills Asked for Schools in Election June 29—Urges Tax Increase in Order to Get Money from State "Floating School Fund"—Says County Has Lost 400 School Children Because of the Cutting of Timber and Moving of Mills.

Editor Sentinel:

Will you please give me space to make a statement in the interests of the rural schools. I am undertaking to explain the proposed additional tax levy.

A petition, signed by a large majority of citizens, patrons, and tax payers of the various school districts of the county for the purpose of increasing the county wide tax levy of 1 1/2 mills to five mills for common schools in order to meet the minimum requirements of the state department of education to participate in the increased appropriation in the equalizing fund, was presented to the board at its last meeting and an election was ordered to be held for this purpose on Saturday, June 29.

There are a number of very vital reasons for making an increase in the county levy for common school purposes. In the first place, in order for the schools to draw an increased disbursement from the additional appropriation by the legislature, it is necessary for each county in the state to have at least a minimum county-wide levy of 5 mills. The levy in Grenada County is 1 1/2 mills for common school purposes, second to the lowest in the state. Then, an investigation of the enumeration books of the educable children of the county shows that there has been a decrease of 400 pupils in the school population of the county due to the fact that there has been a material reduction in the lumber industry. Again, there has been a reduction in the personal and real values outside the separate district due to the cutting of timber and the removal of mills from same. Also from the list of names published for non-payment of poll tax it will be found that there is a reduction from this source of income over the past years. These conditions have brought about a shortage in the common school fund as well as a reduction in the revenues for the various district funds.

On first consideration of the foregoing facts it would seem that there is a general increase of taxes in all of the school districts of the county. This is not the case with the consolidated and special school districts. The only districts that will be effected by the raise of the county levy will be the rural schools which have a low levy and are contributing a very small part toward the operation of the schools. It will be found that there is less than $6000 collected of the common school fund in the whole county. After paying the necessary expenses for the official direction of the use of this fund there remains about enough to operate the schools for 10 days. The tax rate at Gore Springs, Holcomb, Hardy, Tie Plant, Elliott, Fair Grounds, and Grenada, will not be increased and will remain the same.

APRIL BIRTHS REPORTED FROM GRENADA COUNTY

The name of the fathers of babies born in Grenada county during April is given:
Everett A. Henson, boy, April 2, 1929; Rease Houston, boy, April 29, 1929; P. E. Brown, girl, April 11, 1929; Owens Burt, girl, April 26, 1929.

main the same in toto for the coming session. The following tabulation shows how it will effect the local taxing districts.

The following table shows the county levy now and the local levy and the increase and total levy for the different school districts named:

Gore Springs 1 1/2 mills; local 18 1/2 mills; total 20.
3 1/2 mills; reduction 3 1/2 mills.
6 mills; local 15 mills; total 20.
Holcomb, 1 1/2 mills; local 15 1/2 mills; total 17.
3 1/2 mills; reduction 3 1/2 mills;
5 mills; local 12 mills; total 17.
Elliott, 1 1/2 mills; local 15 mills; total 16 1/2.
3 1/2 mills; reduction 3 1/2 mills.
5 mills local 11 1/2 mills; total 16 1/2.
1 1/2 mills; local 12 mills; total 13 1/2.
3 1/2 mills; reduction 3 1/2 mills.
5 mills; local 8 1/2 mills; total 13 1/2.

Tie Plant, 1 1/2 mills; local 8 mills; total 9 1/2.
3 1/2 mills; reduction 3 1/2 mills.
5 mills; local 4 1/2 mills; total 9 1/2.
Wolfe-Hardy 1 1/2 mills; local 7 mills; total 8 1/2.
3 1/2 mills; reduction 3 1/2 mills.
5 mills; local 3 1/2 mills; total 8 1/2.

Rural Schools, 1 1/2 mills, local 0 mills total 1 1/2.
3 1/2 mills; reduction 0 mills;
5 mills; local 0 mills; total 5.

It will be seen from the above tabulation that if the county-wide levy is increased from 1 1/2 mills to 5 to meet the requirements, a similar amount is taken from the local levies of the various school districts, and that the total number of mills remains the same in the special taxing districts. Thus, it is possible for the county to maintain the school term and participate in the increased appropriation by the legislature without increasing the tax rates in any of the consolidated or special school districts.

On Saturday, June 29, the election will be held at all voting precincts, exclusive of Grenada school district, to determine whether or not the people of the county will take advantage of this proposition and assist the financial operation of the larger schools of the county and give further aid to the children of the rural schools. If you favor this move Mr. school patron go to the polls and exercise your franchise in the interest of the children, and should you have a neighbor who does not understand the measure, try to show him the rights and benefits of it and get him right.

If you do not understand the particulars, the County Superintendent of education or the State Superintendent of Education, W. F. Bond, will be glad to give you any information desired.

FIRST COTTON BLOOM

The first cotton bloom from the 1929 crop in Grenada county was sent to The Sentinel Monday by M. L. Lamson, colored farmer living east of Grenada. The bloom came from a stalk that had 27 squares on it.

The second bloom was sent by some friend at Holcomb and came Friday of last week, but no name was given. The third bloom to arrive was plucked June 10, from the crop of Frank Dixon on the Leflore county farm of Mr. Claud Hall of Grenada.

BISHOP CANNON STICKING HIS NOSE IN

During the last presidential campaign Bishop Cannon, of the M. E. Church, South, feasted on the raw meat that the lions of politics eat and seems to have been so well pleased with the diet, that he insists on more.

Now he is sticking his nose into the campaign for Governor of his state, Virginia. Somebody is going to fill his nostrils full of snuff if he persists in playing political dictator.

He is hurting the cause of the great church he has been called to represent and greatly crippling his usefulness as a bishop. We would say this regardless of any party alignments. We feel sure we utter a warning that would be given by any disinterested observer. We feel confident that if President Hoover were to advise the reverend gentleman, he would tell him for the sake of the cause of the Master to have less to say about partisan politics and more about saving human souls. The bishop is fond of the limelight in the same way that the young mule is which scampers away from its owner in a pea patch.

Men not called to preach the gospel do enough foolish things in political campaigns but when it comes to those who are called to proclaim the glad tidings of peace on earth and good will towards men, not being willing to practice forgiving and forgetting, we are getting in a bad way.

CONGRATULATES THE SENTINEL.

The Grenada Sentinel, one of the outstanding journals of North Mississippi, and of the state, is to be congratulated upon their edition of Friday, May 24th. The edition was sponsored by the Woman's Missionary Society of the Grenada Methodist church, termed a "Church and Historical Edition," and is indeed a credit to the staff and to the town of Grenada. This twenty-four page edition carried advertisements from practically every business firm in Grenada, and surrounding territory, which goes to prove that the people are real progressive and "up and doing." The local newspaper of any town or city bears the "earmarks" of its community, and The Sentinel ably bespeaks the progressiveness of the fast growing town of Grenada. We most heartily congratulate The Sentinel upon the "Church and Historical Edition."—Newton Record.

We see that the son of the late United States Senator Bankhead is going to oppose Senator Heflin in Alabama. Senator Heflin can do as many foolish and unnecessary things to the square inch at times as almost any other man in public life. The bulky gentleman sees nightmares whenever the Catholic church is mentioned. But despite all this, he says many beautiful and worth while things and does some mighty fine harpooning in the interests of the masses. Frankly we are willing to overlook the Senator's frailties and would really dislike to see him displaced.

BEECHER VERSUS INGERSOL

The Ram's Horn once printed the report of a meeting between Bob Ingersol and Henry Ward Beecher. It was said that in a company of six or seven men of letters, these two were brought face to face, and in the course of the conversation Ingersol was bantered by one of the men into an attack on Christianity. The tempter introduced this discussion, hoping for a verbal battle between Ingersol and Beecher, and was disappointed when the long-haired minister disregarded all that Ingersol had to say. Finally this gentleman turned to Mr. Beecher and said, "Have you nothing with which to answer Mr. Ingersol?"

"Pardon me," replied Mr. Beecher, "but my mind was engaged on another matter—a most deplorable spectacle which I witnessed today."

"What was it?" he was asked.

"Why," said Beecher, "as I was walking down town, I saw a poor lame man on crutches, slowly and carefully picking his way across a cesspool of mud that lay in the street. He had just reached the middle of the filth when a big burly ruffian himself all bespattered, rushed up to him, jerked the crutches from under the unfortunate man, and left him helpless and hurt in the liquid dirt that almost engulfed him."

"What a brute!" one said.

"What a ruffian!" was the response of Ingersol.

"Did you know his name, Mr. Beecher?" was the question of another.

"Yes," said Mr. Beecher, rising from his chair, his long white hair falling about the manly face, and his eyes burning with righteous jealousy for men and God. "I knew him, and his name was Ingersol, for thou art the man. The human soul is lame, but Christianity is its crutches in the highway of life. It is your effort to knock those crutches from beneath its arms and leave it hurt and helpless in the slough of despond. If robbing the soul of its only support in this earth, religion, be your profession, why, ply, it to your heart's content."

COMMONWEALTH'S MAMMOTH EDITION.

The Greenwood Commonwealth's "Delta Industrial and Agricultural Review" issued with the regular paper June 8, is a most highly creditable publication. It is five sections and contains 112 pages, size 11x16 inches. The publication contains many articles by different ones who should be regarded as authorities on what they write. The delta is most admirably described as the greatest farming section of the richest lands in all the world—and it is. The whole delta should reap from the issue.

Particularly is Greenwood and Greenwood's enterprises shown to the very best advantage. The rainbow is hung in the business sky for Greenwood and the public is given opportunity to hunt for the gold and other treasures that really lie within the grasp of the citizenship of that peculiarly favored section. Greenwood is shown as a city of large enterprises and with a people not satisfied with the present but as one determined to achieve in all that makes for economic success and good citizenship.

We most heartily congratulate Sumter Gillespie and Littleton Upshar on their splendid work.

Investigations at Jackson are still under way. Now Gov. Bilbo is having himself investigated.

Continuity

When the St. Francis Dam went out it took the light and power companies less than a minute to restore electric service in Los Angeles after the power failed.

During the great Mississippi flood in 1927 all the cities, towns and villages in the flooded area, served from the interconnected system of this company, were continuously supplied with electric service. Service was uninterrupted because electric energy was transmitted over the flood waters as clearly portrayed in the above illustration, which is a reproduction from an actual photograph taken in the Mississippi Delta in 1927.

Mississippi Power & Light Company has planned carefully for the present and the future—for accidents and disasters. This company now has hundreds of miles of transmission lines in operation in Mississippi, interconnecting a group of steam and hydro-electric generating stations.

This marvelously co-ordinated interconnected power system guarantees a continuous electric light and power service to every community in Mississippi served by this company.

What is this worth in dollars and cents to a community?

Lesson for June 16 JUDAH TAKEN CAPTIVE

LESSON TEXT—II Kings 25:1-31.
GOLDEN TEXT—Righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people.
PRIMARY TOPIC—A Nation That Forgot God.
JUNIOR TOPIC—A Nation That Forgot God.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Paying the Price of Sinning.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—National Accountability to God.

Zedekiah was made king of Judah by the king of Babylon (II Kings 24:17), but in spite of this kindness and the word of the Lord spoken to him by Jeremiah (Jer. 34:17, 18, cf. Jer. 52:3), he rebelled against the king of Babylon. He relied upon the help of Egypt, but all that Egypt could do was to cause temporary interruption of the siege of Jerusalem.

I. The Siege of Jerusalem (vv. 1-3).

1. The time (vv. 1, 2). It began on the tenth day of the tenth month of the ninth year of Zedekiah's reign and lasted about eighteen months. The tenth month, according to the Jewish calendar, corresponds to our December, January, as their calendar year began about the middle of March. The reason the exact time is given is that this was to be an event of great importance to the Jews in their exile.

2. The method (v. 1). Nebuchadnezzar came with a large army and encamped against Jerusalem and built forts against it round about. It is thought that siege walls were built around the city, shutting it in. On the tops of these walls forts were built from which missiles of destruction could be hurled by engines of war against the city. With the city thus shut in, its fall was only a question of time.

3. The famine (v. 3).

Gelkies says, "It was speedily followed, as is always the case, with an outbreak of pestilence. Food was well-nigh gone. There had been no bread. Mothers were at last driven to murder and eat their children. The richest citizens wandered about searching for scraps in the dung hills." It is estimated that one-third of the people of Jerusalem died of starvation.

II. Zedekiah's Flight and Fate (vv. 4-7).

1. "The city was broken up" (v. 4). The Chaldeans had succeeded in making an opening in the wall so large that they could make their way into the city in spite of all that the Hebrews could do. Resistance was carried on to the bitter end.

2. Zedekiah's flight (v. 4). The king, with his men of war, fled by night toward the plain. His object no doubt was to cross the Jordan at Jericho and hide in the mountains east of the river.

3. Zedekiah's fate (vv. 5-7). (1) He was overtaken in the plains of Jericho (v. 5). When his flight was discovered, the Chaldean army pursued and captured him. (2) He was brought to the king of Babylon at Riblah (v. 6), a town north of Damascus. It was the king's headquarters from which he directed his armies against Tyre and Jerusalem. Zedekiah was tried as a criminal before Nebuchadnezzar. (3) His fate (v. 7). His sons were slain in his sight; his eyes were put out; he was bound with fetters of brass and they carried him to Babylon where he remained prisoner until the day of his death (Jer. 52:11).

III. Jerusalem Destroyed (vv. 8-10).

The dismantling of the city was delayed a month, perhaps awaiting instructions from Nebuchadnezzar, who was at Riblah. The work of destruction was executed by the officer next in rank to the king.

1. They burnt the house of the Lord (v. 9). This was the sacred temple built by Solomon, with additions and modifications. Before burning it was despoiled of all its sacred contents.

2. Burnt the king's house (v. 9). This was doubtless the palace built by Solomon.

3. Burnt all the houses of Jerusalem (v. 9). This implication is that the common houses were left for the people (v. 12).

4. They broke down the walls of Jerusalem. The aim was to render the walls useless as a means of defense.

IV. The Disposition of the Temple Furniture and Priests (vv. 13-21).

1. The temple furniture (vv. 13-17). The pillars of brass and the brazen sea were broken into pieces by the Babylonians. These pieces, together with the utensils, were carried to Babylon.

2. Certain officers and priests (vv. 18-21). Certain officers, priests, and three-score men of the land were taken to Riblah by the king of Babylon, where they were slain.

Burt-Craddock

A pretty wedding was solemnized Sunday, June 9, at Philadelphia, Miss., between Miss Dove Craddock, of Philadelphia, and Mr. Rogers Burt, of Duck Hill.

Preceding the ceremony, which was said by Rev. W. W. Kyzar, Miss Maggie Green sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" and "O Promise Me". The wedding march from both Lohengrin and Mendelssohn were beautifully played by Miss Hazel Burt, sister of the groom. "Gypsy Love Song" was softly played during the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her aunt, Mrs. J. L. Lumpkin, was gownned in lavender chiffon trimmed with gold lace and a picture hat to match. Her flowers were an arm bouquet of American beauty roses and lilies of the valley. Mary Alice Petty and Miller Petty, Jr., were ribbon bearers. Little Miss Florence Mars was flower girl, and Everett Cole, Jr., carried the ring in the heart of a lily. The maid of honor, Miss Lucile Craddock, sister of the bride, wore a blue georgette model with harmonizing picture hat. She carried an arm bouquet of American beauty roses.

Mr. Roy Burt, of Grenada, was best man and Messrs. Gordon Dees, of Philadelphia and Johnny Max Leigh, of Duck Hill, were ushers.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt will be at home to their friends in Duck Hill after an extended honeymoon to Chicago and the Great Lakes.

Mrs. Spivey Kent entertained 8 tables of players at bridge Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Clifford Davis, of Memphis, and Miss Marybel Brown. A green and white color motif was carried out in the decorations as well as in the refreshments. White hydrangeas, cape jasmine and gladiolas with bonbon dishes filled with various gift bouquets were the flowers used. Green and white Jordan almonds were placed on the tables. During the games punch and sandwiches were served. Ice cream in molds with green and white cake and salted nuts were served at the conclusion of the games. Mrs. Kent was assisted in serving by Mesdames S. H. Garner and J. N. Estes. Mrs. J. B. Perry, Jr., were high score prize, a compact and Mrs. Henry Pope, low score, a box of bath powder. The honorees were each presented a bottle of perfume. The guest list included Mesdames John B. Duncan, Roger Upshaw, Claud Gibson, Betty Upshaw, Roland Jones, E. L. Wilkins, R. C. Trusty, E. L. Bass, Bob Townes, Andrew Carothers, Overton Pearson, Henry Ray, J. K. Advent, Shade Steele, Roy Doak, Frank Gerard, Hubert Calhoun, Henry Pope, Ralph Semmes, George Garner, J. B. Perry, Jr., Albert George, W. M. Mitchell, E. R. Prouditt, Paul Sisk, Frank Hill and Misses Elizabeth Jones, Louise, Lena Elma McElwrath and Bernice Lawrence.

Watson-Hamilton.

A wedding of interest to their large circle of friends, was beautifully, though quietly, solemnized, Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock between Miss Nannie Lou Hamilton, of Grenada, and Rev. J. C. Watson, of Louisville, Miss.

Loving hands had made the house unusually attractive with sweet peas, nasturtiums and ferns. At one end of the living room an altar was made of palms and ferns, on either side of which were placed large baskets of pink and blue hydrangeas. A candelabrum with seven white tapers added to the decorations.

Preceding the ceremony a violin solo, "Meditations", from the opera, Thais, was beautifully rendered by Miss Dorothy Fair, of Louisville. Miss Sue Hitt then sang, very sweetly, "All For You". Mrs. F. S. Hill played the wedding march from Mendelssohn in her usual skillful manner. "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" was softly played during the ceremony. All wore dainty corsages of sweethearts roses.

The bride never looked lovelier, gownned in exquisite white georgette trimmed in lace. She wore a veil of illusion with a coronet of orange blossoms and carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses, white gladioli and valley lilies. She entered with the groom and they were met at the altar by Rev. R. L. McLeod, who said the impressive double ring ceremony. Little Miss Martha Jane Hamilton, of Winona, niece of the bride, wearing a dainty pink organdy frock, carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Hamilton who have for some time made Grenada their home. She was educated at M. S. C. W. and has been teaching for several years in the city school here where she has endeared herself to pupils and parents alike. She has been reared in a Christian home and has received that training which makes her especially fitted for the responsibilities that she will meet with the mate of her choice. Added to this wealth of character are a charming manner, sweet disposition and radiant personality.

The groom is the popular pastor of the Presbyterian church at Louisville. He is thoroughly consecrated to his work and is highly esteemed by all who know him.

Following the ceremony a buffet supper was tendered the bridal party, out of town guests and the few Grenada friends who were privileged to witness the wedding. A beautiful wedding cake which formed the center of the dining table was cut.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson left on the fast train going south for the Mississippi coast where they will spend their honeymoon.

The out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor, Morton, Miss.; Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Fair, Miss Dorothy Fair, Mr. Davis Fair, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fair, Mr. G. W. E. Bennett, Mrs. Sarah Hanna, of Louisville, Miss.; Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Watson, Brandon, Miss.; Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Watson, Virgil Watson, Jr., of Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. Jack L. Hamilton and Martha Jane, of Winona.

The Sentinel wishes for Mr. and Mrs. Watson a smooth and a happy voyage through life.

Miss Rachel Todd entertained about 25 of her friends with a lovely party Wednesday night. Miss Todd was beautifully dressed for the occasion in blue organdy over blue taffeta with blue shoes to match. Games and dancing were enjoyed during the evening and delicious cream and cake were served. Mesdames Frank Gerard and W. R. Todd graciously assisted the young hostess in entertaining her guests.

Mrs. A. W. Stokes with her daughters, Miss Rebecca and Mrs. G. M. Garner, motored to Greenwood Monday.

Mrs. Lillian Wolf and Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Friou had as their guests for the week-end their sister and aunt, Mrs. L. E. Dakin and three children, Elizabeth, Leona and Joseph, of Shaw.

Miss Dolores White is enjoying a visit with relatives in Jackson.

A Sale Without "Ifs" And "Buts"

BEGINS FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 14th, AT 8 O'CLOCK

We wish we could invent another word in place of "sale". For the sales we hold are so different from the events usually held under that name that we'd like to make a distinction.

In the first place, a sale in this store happens just twice a year - we haven't had one for six months and it will be six months before we hold another.

In the second place, we hold our sales for one purpose - CLEARANCE. We sell all our merchandise - and nothing but our merchandise. The same standard quality which prevails all year round, holds good at sale time. The only changes are on the price tags.

So if you want to take advantage of a once-in-six months opportunity to buy fine merchandise at worthwhile savings, - be here early Friday.

because it offers Big
Car Qualities for only $745

The New Pontiac Big Six is a sweeping success—an even more pronounced success than its famous predecessors. And it owes its success largely to the fact that it offers big car qualities at low prices. Oakland produced this car to enable progressive people to step up in motor car quality without leaving the low-priced field. And the very people for whom it was created have made it an impressive sales success.

Pontiac Big Six, $745 to $895, f. o. b. Pontiac, Michigan, plus delivery charges. Bumpers, spring covers and Lovejoy shock absorbers regular equipment at slight extra cost. General Motors Time Payment Plan available at minimum rate.

Consider the delivered price as well as the list price when comparing automobile values... Oakland-Pontiac delivered prices include only reasonable charges for handling and for financing when the Time Payment Plan is used.

"Chrysler came into a seemingly crowded motor car market and almost overnight swept its way into unprecedented acceptance as a quality product. + + Why? Because Chrysler brushed aside outworn traditions in engineering, in design, and in performance.

It brought to bear both scientific exactness and artistry. + + That is why Chrysler has taken the country by storm—why it still stands and will long stand alone."

CHRYSLER'S PLACE IN THE SUN

Prior to five years ago there were no Chrysler motor cars. In five years, Chrysler, from a standing start, has overtaken leading cars of three, four and five times its age.

The spectacle of a newcomer so swiftly becoming a leader can bring the logical mind to but one conclusion: There must be something remarkable, something altogether different and superior, in the cars that Chrysler builds.

There is a definite superiority in Chrysler cars. Hundreds of thousands of motorists the world over have learned it.

There is in Chrysler performance, a thrilling sense of endless power, a swift eagerness of life and spirit, a restful feeling of perfect balance and positive safety that cannot be experienced except in a Chrysler car. There is in Chrysler design artistic freshness and modern charm. There is in Chrysler riding qualities a smoothness, a cradled restfulness quite without counterpart. Drive a Chrysler car today and realize, better than words could ever tell you, why Chrysler has won so glittering a place in the sun—and why Chrysler goes on and on to an ever-increasing popularity and prestige.

CHRYSLER "75"—$1535 to $1795—Eight Body Styles. CHRYSLER "65"—$1040 to $1145—Six Body Styles. All prices f. o. b. factory. Chrysler dealers extend convenient time payments.

Girl Scouts Entertain.

At five o'clock Saturday afternoon the high school basement was the scene of a lovely entertainment, when the local Girl Scouts and council paid homage to their loved founder and leader, Miss Nannie Lou Hamilton, whose marriage was solemnized Wednesday evening.

The council, under the direction of Mrs. A. J. McCaslin, had made the basement unusually attractive with gladiolas, ferns, and scout flags.

A very unique and appropriate pageant. A girl scout's hope chest, was rendered under the capable direction of Miss Fay Gunn and Mrs. E. C. Thompson and dedicated to the honoree. Velma Moss as an old woman showed Eloise Wilkins, the girl scout, some qualities which should go into her hope chest, along with linens, silver, jewels, and laces.

The first of these was joy portrayed in a lovely, airy dance by Misses Peggy Spain and Gloria Williams. Nina Grace Cunningham and Elinor Lickfold as music and poetry charmed the listeners with the song "The Sweetest Story Ever Told". Following this Grace Cowles Horton, as knowledge; Marjorie Williamson, wisdom; Ruth Kirk, truth; Marguerite Honeycutt, romance; Elizabeth Wilkins, justice; and Bessie Phelan Sharp, loyalty, convincingly showed their right to a place in the hope chest. Mary Upshaw Jones as imagination established her right to a place also, as she executed a graceful rhythmic dance. Misses Chloe Lufkin and Ethel Murphy interpreted youth in a Grecian dance.

The climax was reached when the old woman stated the fact that all these beautiful qualities were summed up in the person of Miss Hamilton. Miss Billie Chapuis then presented her hand, some silver, bread tray and knife. Mrs. Cowles Horton, representing the council awarded her the girl scout badge of appreciation, given by the national headquarters only to those whose service to scouting is unusually outstanding.

Ice cream and cake, carrying out the scout colors, were served at the conclusion of the delightful party.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Williams spent Monday and Tuesday in Memphis.

Mrs. John Young and children, of Greenville, have returned to their home after a visit with relatives in Grenada.

Mr. Frank Gerard, Jr., entertained the following young people with a very novel and attractive party last Thursday night: Misses Mary Phelan Brown, Faye Esterling, Constance Thompson, Gloria Williams, Lucy Webb Sharp, Margaret Boosey, Rachel Todd and Messrs. Jack Terry, Dick Bradley, Jack Martin, Sam Mims, III, Quin Nelson, Clifford Bailey, Henry Ray, Joe Stevens, Donald Ross, Cowles Horton and Gus Gerard. Following an interesting picture show run on his private projector dancing was enjoyed for a while. The guests were refreshed with delicious cream and cake. The party was given especially for Mr. Jack Martin, who was the guest of the host, and Mr. Jack Terry, who is visiting Mr. Dick Bradley.

Commissioner and Mrs. Clifford Davis and Mrs. Mary Leigh, of Memphis, motored down Sunday to visit relatives in Grenada. Mr. Davis returned Monday, but Mrs. Davis remained and is the guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Garner. Mrs. Leigh will be for some time the guest of her mother, Mrs. T. H. Moore.

Rev. R. L. McLeod left yesterday for Chattanooga, Tenn., where he will join Mrs. McLeod. Together they will go to Laurinburg and Maxton, N. C., for an extended visit with relatives there.

Miss Thelma Jackson has returned from a delightful visit with her friend, Miss Marybel Stollenkerck at Fausdale, Ala.

Messrs. David Young Dubard, Johnny Calhoun, Lewis Dubard and Professor Young motored to Greenwood Sunday.

Mrs. E. E. Penn and children, Edith and Ernest, Jr., are visiting relatives in Amory.

Misses Lillian McGrath, Margaret Trusty, Mary Ann Crenshaw and Chloe Lufkin spent Sunday in Columbus.

Mrs. Donald Sharp has been visiting her mother, Mrs. J. H. Caldwell in Charleston, for several days.

Mr. Roger Upshaw, of Oklahoma City, arrived Monday to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Gibson. Mrs. Upshaw and little daughter, Nancy, who have been visiting in Grenada for several weeks, expect to accompany Mr. Upshaw when he returns.

Mrs. Walker, Wood, of Jackson, was the guest last week of Mrs. C. F. Woodson.

Mr. Fred Lickfold was a business visitor to Greenwood Tuesday.

Mrs. Frank Smith and three children, with her mother, Mrs. Ellis, all of Greenwood, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Matthews and family.

Miss Catherine Lufkin left Tuesday morning for Memphis to spend several days there.

Miss Mary Rowe and Mr. Lewis Rider, of Amory, were united in marriage Thursday, June 6, at the Methodist parsonage in Grenada. Rev. J. H. Holder, officiating. Mr. Rider is a farmer near Amory and the couple will make it their home.

Mr. Robert Melton, of Dallas, and Mrs. Pearl McClellan, of Greenwood, visited Mr. Orin Melton Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dunlap and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Nickles and daughter, Catherine, of Batesville, visited Mr. and Mrs. George Grant Sunday. Miss Bay Grant returned with them for a week's visit.

Miss Elizabeth Goza, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. O. H. Roberts, in Jackson.

Mrs. Mollie Townes was the charming hostess last Friday night at a bridge party given in honor of Dr. and Mrs. John Duncan, of Atlanta, Ga., and Mrs. Roger Upshaw, of Oklahoma City. At the conclusion of the games Mrs. Duncan received a dainty handkerchief as ladies high score, while the men's prize, a cartoon of cigarettes went to Mr. William Wright. An appetizing salad course was served by the hostess. Those enjoying the evening with the honorees were: Mr. and Mrs. Claud Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Townes, Mrs. Betty Upshaw, Miss Mary Upshaw Jones, and Messrs. William Wright and Charlie Wright.

Mrs. W. E. Smith and Messrs. J. T. Thomas, Edgar Underwood and Roland Jones drove over to Cruger Tuesday.

Column About Colored People of Grenada County Items by J. H. Phillips

Mr. A. H. Henderson, president of the Old Folks Home Association accepted an appointment last Sunday to present the claims of the association to our people out east viz. Graysport, and Mt. Hermon. We accepted an invitation to accompany him. So at 10:30 a. m. in company with my wife we rolled up to the gate at his well arranged home and beautiful farm, situated 8 miles east of Grenada. His beautiful home of 6 large rooms spacious hallway, and spreading veranda, on two sides of his bungalow is in or about the middle of his 1000 acres. Barns, shops, outhouses for all sorts of conveniences deck the surrounding. A commodious country store where is found a full supply of everything needed to accommodate the surrounding country. It is so close to his residence that his wife ably functions in the home and at the store and Mrs. Henderson knows her "stuff". After looking around at a nice, clean and growing crop as far as eye could see, we jumped into Mr. Henderson's "tin Lizzie" and hiked away to Graysport where in a nice commodious church we found Rev. D. W. Wilson at his past where he pastors and preaches every second Sunday. We were in time for Sunday School. It was children's day and the children were really there—nice, clean well dressed children ready for their exhibit in honor of the day and purpose. Rev. Wilson is a full team in himself and the charge is honored in having a man so well equipped to look after its spiritual interest. Some of the most substantial citizens of Grenada county are members of his church at Graysport. Henry Williams, Prof. J. M. Crane, Millard Trussell, A. J. Rutledge, supt. of the Sunday School, Robert Joliff, John Conley and others should give this pastor satisfaction that his flock is equal to flocks that are considered higher intellectually and socially. Rev. Wilson gave us a chance to say what was on our minds which we did and it was graciously received and responded to in a very substantial way. To wit: a small contribution of $2.50 in cash for the Old Folk's Home, followed by organizing a society and electing officers to keep the cause before the people and through it bolster up the cause of the Old Folk's Home Association. Rev. J. S. Hankins was present from the Pleasant Grove neighborhood and declared his interest and support. He gave as his initial contribution 50c and made us a date—the fourth Sunday in this month when we shall go to his church to organize a like society. The purpose of the president is to get a local organization throughout the county. We left Graysport and hurried back to Mr. Henderson's home where dinner was ready and waiting. Both of us did our duty at the table, for it was a substantial dinner that quieted the inner man. We then hurried over to Mt. Hermon church of which Rev. E. G. Scrivens is pastor. We found many people here but on account of weather conditions the quarterly conference was in session finishing up some important church work. We declined to remain, so hiked back home. After filling up on ice cold water from his artesian well, Miss Emma and I claimed the right side of the road and returned home much refreshed from the trip.

Miss Lillian Brown, daughter of Mr. D. L. Brown, our letter carrier, has returned to her home. She returns from Fish University with the degree of A. B. Fisk is one of the oldest schools in the south for our group and takes the highest standard as an educational institution. Miss Brown is, we think, the only product of this community that has ever received a college degree. She is a young lady of rare attainment as a scholar and possesses a personality that is at once inviting and agreeable. Miss Geneva Lee of Cadise, Ohio, comes with Miss Brown to spend a few days visiting in our city. We hope her visit will be a pleasant one and that the younger set of our city will give her a cordial and entertaining welcome.

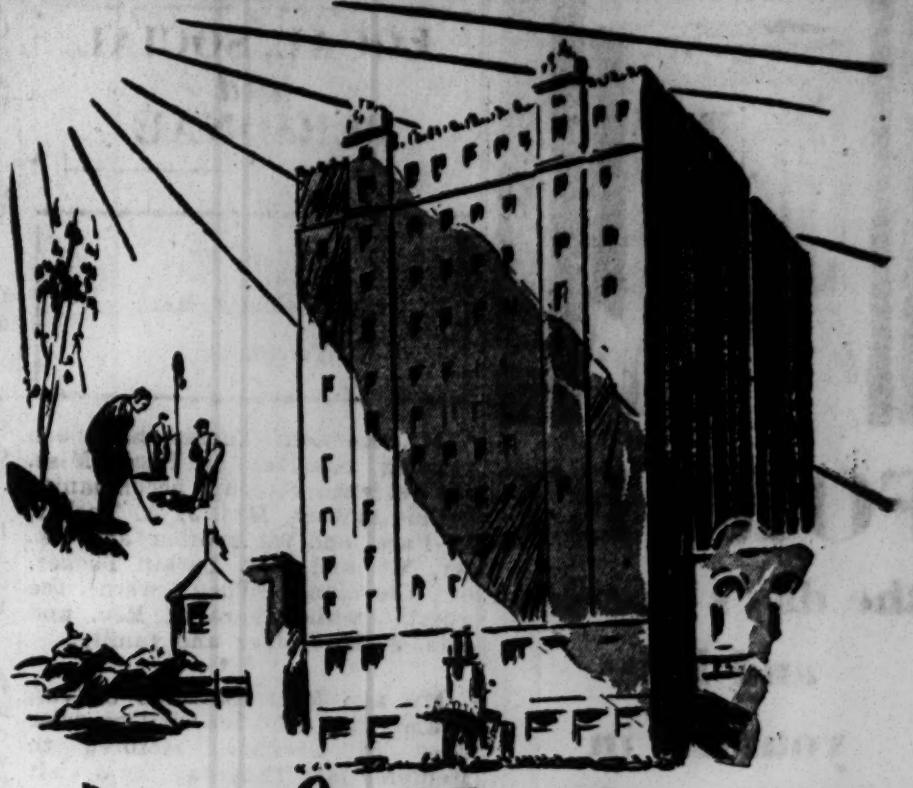

Mrs. Maggie Winter, 32, wife of Mr. Money Winter, died last Tuesday after a lingering illness of several weeks. The funeral rites were held from Powell Chapel A. M. E. Church Sunday at 3 p. m. Rev. Mozee, her pastor, delivered the eulogy. Many relatives and sorrowing friends were present. She will be missed in the community for kind and agreeable disposition.

FELT BAD AFTER EATING

"FOUR YEARS AGO, I suffered with heartburn and bilious indigestion. Whatever I ate disagreed with me. Gas on my stomach made me very uncomfortable. My tongue was coated and my color was bad. I needed a good laxative, and so my mother-in-law gave me some Black-Draught and told me to take it. I found it helped me very much, so I bought it for myself. Seems it was the very thing I needed. It is a fine family remedy, and I use it when I need something for constipation. I also give Black-Draught to my children whenever they need something for colds or upset stomachs. Our whole family takes Black-Draught."
